The Scattering

The times immediately following the Flood were chaotic and dangerous showing the continued failure of humanity against a backdrop of God's continued grace. It contrasts humanity in general as demonstrated by its chief rebel, Nimrod, and God's chosen remnant, epitomized in Abram.

The Ice Age *****New replacing God's People***

One of many consequences of the Great Flood was the making of great, long-lived fields of ice and snow. In God's great wisdom, He used them for His glory, the cooling of Earth's surface, and opened a medium of passage to make possible His commandment to "multiply and fill the Earth."

Say What?

The Lord came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built. The Lord said, “Behold, they are one people, and they all have the same language. And this is what they began to do, and now nothing which they purpose to do will be impossible for them. “Come, let Us go down and there confuse their language, so that they will not understand one another’s speech.” So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of the whole earth; and they stopped building the city. Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of the whole earth; and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of the whole earth. – Gen 11:5-9

Video Notes:

Note the lush forests and land, in contrast to today's Babel, a giant sand lot. These are from climate change to be discussed next week) as well as dinos. We will address these next time.

From Josephus:

“God also commanded them to send colonies abroad, for the thorough peopling of the earth, that they might not raise seditions among themselves, but might cultivate a great part of the earth, and enjoy its fruits after a plentiful manner. But they were so ill instructed that they did not obey God; for which reason they fell into calamities, and were made sensible, by experience, of what sin they had been guilty: for when they flourished with a numerous youth, God admonished them again to send out colonies; but they, imagining the prosperity they enjoyed was not derived from the favor of God, but supposing that their own power was the proper cause of the plentiful condition they were in, did not obey him. Nay, they added to this their disobedience to the Divine will, the suspicion that they were therefore ordered to send out separate colonies, that, being divided asunder, they might the more easily be Oppressed.” - Josephus, Antiquities Ch 4 para 1

God: That Wasn't a Suggestion

"God also commanded them to send colonies abroad, for the thorough peopling of the earth, that they might not raise seditions among themselves, but might cultivate a great part of the earth, and enjoy its fruits after a plentiful manner." - Josephus, Antiquities Ch 4 para 1

Is there an area in our lives that we're taking as a suggestion?

Now Cush became the father of Nimrod; he became a mighty one on the earth. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord; therefore it is said, "Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the Lord." The beginning of his kingdom was Babel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. From that land he went forth into Assyria, and built Nineveh and Rehoboth-Ir and Calah, and Resen between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city. – Gen 10:8-12

Per several commentaries, "Mighty before the Lord" can be thought of as rebellious (Talmud), powerful (Gen here in our text and 1 Chr 1:10), and land grabbing ( V 9-10, Micah 5:6, implied) and a rebel (Mac Arthur, Courson et al).

HM Morris comments: "Nimrod, the youngest and most illustrious son of Cush, was given a name meaning "Let us rebel!" and apparently trained by his father for this purpose."

Cush was the son of Ham, who had been previously cursed by Noah for mocking his father's nakedness Gen 9:20-27

What's Next?

We have replaced the previous "The People of God" with a study on the Ice Age focusing more on the consequences of migrating, scattering, both people and animals

One of many consequences of the Great Flood was the making of great, long-lived fields of ice and snow. In God's great wisdom, He used them for His glory, the cooling of Earth's surface, and opened a medium of passage to make possible His commandment to "multiply and fill the Earth."
